Seaton Hall is by all odds the hand. somest room of the kind in this city.

EPISCOPAL .- Last night, the Church of Ascension, (Rev. Dr. Pinckney, rector.) was crowded to its utmost capacity, (and many persons not being able to gain admission) the occasion being the administering of the rite of confirmation by Right Rev. Bishop Southgate. The baptismal fount in front of the altar was tastefully decorated with evergreens and filled with beautiful japonicas. The services were conducted by the Right Rev. Bishop Southgate, Rev. Dr. Hall, of Epiphany Church, Rav. Dr. Keuling, of Trinity, and Rev. Dr. Pinckney, of the Ascension.

Rev. Dr. Hall read the gospel and epistles. Rev. Dr. Keuling the prayers, Rev. Dr. Pinck-ney announced the Psalms, and Bishop Southgate pronounced the absolution. Rev. Bishop Southgate preached an able sermon upon the subject of Baptismal Resignation, taking his text from the Acts of the Apostles, 22d chapter, 16th verse "And now why tarriest thou: arise and be baptised and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord. When the Bishop had concluded his discourse, Rev. Dr. Pinkney invited the candidates for confirmation to approach the altar during the singing of the two first verses of the 89th hymn, commencing-"Oh, happy day that fix't my choice

Well may this glowing heart rejoice, And tell its raptures all abroad." During the excellent performances by the choir, (consisting of Mrs. P. M. Dubant, Miss Goodrich, Capt. Mewand Mr. Van Buskirk .. 59 ladies and gentlemen advanced to the altar. After having answered in the affirmative in the questions propounded to them. Bishop Southgate administered to each the rite of confirmation in an impressive manner.

On thee, my Saviour and my God;

The services were then concluded according to the usages of the Episcopal Church, after which the congregation separated. Thus far, the visiting Bishop has confirmed in the District of Columbia and neighborhood 312 persons. We understand it is his intention to leave to-day for the lower counties in Maryland, on which mission he will probably thus receive into the church as many more.

CONSOLIDATION OF THE EIGHTH AND NINTH POLICE PRECINCTS.—In compliance with a resolution adopted at a recent meeting of the board of Police Commissioners, orders were issued yesterday for the consolidation of the 8th and 9th precincts, and the ex ansion of the 7th precinct, to take effect on Thursday, December 1st. The 7th precinct, whose headquarters are at the City Hall, will now run down 3d street west to Maryland avenue, and thence out to the eastern boundary, and around to New York avenue, its northern boundary. The new 8th precinct, whose headquarters will be at the new station-house, on south D, near 6th street east, commences at Maryland avenue Canal Bridge, and follows the line of Maryland avenue to the eastern boundary, and along the Eastern Branch to South Capitol street, and thence to the Canal and to the place of beginning Sergeant Milatead, of the 8th precinct, will be continued in the enlarged district.

The following changes, rendered necessary by the consolidation, have been made :- Acting Sergeant C. C. Clarke, and patrolmen J. B Walling, C. Berkeley, and J. Harbour, and roundsman G. Pierce, of the 9th precinct, w Harbin, and patroimen's. H. Beatre cr. W. Duvall. and Joseph Shelton, transferred to the new 8th precinct.

A MYSTERIOUS BURIAL.—Early on Sunday morning, parties residing on north Seventh street noticed four young men in a hack, whose actions were sufficiently mysterious to attract attention. The carriage was stopped near Q street, and one of the young men (after his comrades had disposed themselves sentrywise, as if to guard against observation, walked away a little distance, when he paused and after peering in every direction to see if anybody was near, commenced digging with a spade, and soon excavated a neat little grave. He then beckoned to one of his comrades, who cautiously drew from the bottom of the hack a coffin shaped box of small size, which he took to the grave, which was then hastily filled, after which the parties speedily decamped. Their proceedings had, however, been watched by curious eyes, and the police were immediately notified, while one young man, actuated by a sense of duty, went, at considerable personal inconvenience, all the way to Georgetown for the coroner, it being quite apparent 'hat a shocking case of infanticide had been perpetrated. The veteran coroner, however, declined to attend, unless summoned by the police. The police accordingly made the preliminary investigation, and proceeded to disinter the body, in the presence of the parties who had been so indefatigable in bringing the hideous crime to light. On removing the coffin lid there was disclosed-not the expected corpse of a babe, but that of a emall pup, which had been thus respectfully interred by his regretful owner. This is a fact.

A Young Money SNATCHER. - Yesterday morning, a bootblack, named Washington Morritt, aged 12 years, while sales were going on in front of Lewis' auction rooms, snatched a purse containing $65 from the hand of Mrs. Margaret Mason, who was attending the sale, and made off. Officer Gordon, of the Fifth Ward, was passing along at the time, and overhanled the young rascal, recovering the money from him. He was taken before Justice Thompson, who committed him to jail.

CONCERTS .- On Friday evening next, the young ladies of the public schools (Second District) give a grand concert for the benefit of the Protestant Orphan Asylum. The choir of St. Matthews' Church will give a grand sacred concert in the basement hall of their church on Sunday evening next, as-Bisted by some of the best amateur talent, both vocal and instrumental.

A STONE FIGHT .- Yesterday afternoon officer Gordon in passing near Sherburne Barracks discovered a stone fight going on between a number of boys and two colored men, James Gollins and C. H. Jones, and he arrested them. They were taken before Justice Handy, when they alleged that the boys commenced first, and the justice fined each $2.90, and Mary Ann Hill $3 90, for interfering with the officer in making arrests.

DANCING ACADEMY .- Prof. Marini, so well known as a highly successful teacher of dancing, commences the second quarter of his season December 1st, it will be seen by his advertisement. may expect a good time, as Old Hibernia is an expert in getting up balls. ONE DOLLAR JEWELRY STORE, No. 428 Pa. avenue, near 4% street.

A HARD PARTY .- Yesterday afternoon, officer Harrison, of the Fifth Ward, arrested Martin Ellenburger, Ellen Ellenburger, and Josephine Snyder, the first two for keeping a house of prostitution, and the latter for leading a lewd and lascivious life; and they were taken to the station, where last evening the case was heard by Justice Handy.

The principal witness was Margaret Holmes, who testified that she herself was not decent; she made no pretensions to being decent; that Mrs. Ellenburger came up to the synagogue on D street to get witness and another girl to go to her house as boarders; that on Saturday last she went to the house, and remained until Monday evening, receiving the company of men and paying half she made to Ellenburger or wife. A good many soldiers visit the place, and she had seen them get liquor there, and got liquor for herself. They all in the house had the same business; she had lived in a house of prostitution at No. 101 Washington street, New York, with Mrs. Ellenburger.

Officer L. P. Milstead testified that recently he was in the house, when he saw women sitting in soldiers' laps, and one woman tumble on a settee with a soldier. Josephine Snyder protested that she was in the house only as a servant. The justice fined Ellenburger $20.91 for selling liquor without license, a like amount for selling to soldiers, and held him to security for his appearance at court to answer for keeping FIRE.-About 5 o'clock this morning officer Sullivan sounded an alarm of fire from box 47, Meigs engine-house,) corner of F and 22d street, which brought out the fire departments (Government and city) promptly. It proved to be the still-house at H. C. Wilson's lamp black factory, at the foot of the canal, which was mostly consumed, occasioning a loss of about $1.000. The machinery being encased in heavy brick work was not damaged, and the apparatus getting to work promptly, and the canal being near, from which they obtained water, the adjacent buildings, including the valuable lamp black factory, were saved. The fire was caused by carelessness, a workman, whose business it was to thaw the stilling tank, containing roofing pitch, preparatory to drawing it off, having left the furnace under the cock when he turned it on, the pitch immediately took fire, enveloping the building in flames.

T. Linthicum was arrested by omcer Diewer, upon the charge of forestalling, upon the information of Mr. Lyles, clerk of the Centre Market, and was taken before Justice Thompson. The evidence being satisfactory the Justice fined the accused $10. Wm. Robertson was arrested by the same officer for huckstering without license from the corporation. Justice Thompson fined the delinquent $5.

FAIR .- The Foundry Church fair, at Odd Fellows' Hall, closes to-night, and should be made much of. The richly spread refreshment tables, presided over so gracefully by Miss Belle Shackleford, (and her eight pretty aides,) and the other tables by Mrs. Gardiner, Mrs. Smith, Miss Annie Adams, Miss Israel, Miss Bates, Miss Lizzie Adams, Mrs. Tippett and Miss Vic Eaton, offer the most abundant attractions. Call in to-night.

A RAIDON THE APPLE AND PEANUT STANDS. The sidewalk venders of apples and peanuts on Penn'a avenue, between 3d street and the Capitol, were panic stricken vesterday noon by the sudden appearance among them of officer Sprague, bearing an order from Mayor Wallach, and countersigned by the Superintendent of Police, W. B. Webb, Esq, ordering theremoval of all stands whereon anything was sold in the street.

ANOTHER MARYLAND SLAVE FOR WASH INGTON TO SUPPORT .- Yesterday, Polly Galloway, a former slave of Henry Thorr, of Prince George county, Md., and very old and feeble, some 80 years of age, was dropped from a wagon on 11th street east, having been sent up. as she says, by her former master. She was picked up by officer Duvall and taken to the Sixth Ward station, from whence she was sent
